

NOT A PUBLIC NECESSITY.

DEMONSTRATION AGAINST TRACKING TOWNSEND AVENUE.

Selectmen Hold an Interesting Public Hearing—Action Deferred Until Tomorrow Night—Ex-Governor Waller Appeared for the Railroad Company.

The petition of the New Haven Street Railway company for permission to lay tracks on Townsend avenue, from the Four Corners to Upson street, was the cause of a numerously attended meeting of the board of selectmen being held in rooms 10 and 11 of the city hall yesterday afternoon. All the selectmen were present except Selectman Brown. Attorneys S. Harrison Wagner and ex-Governor Waller appeared for the railroad company, Judge Hobart L. Hotchkiss and Attorney Herbert E. Benton for the remonstrants and Town Counsel J. P. Goodhart for the town of New Haven.

There are many remonstrants against the granting of the petition, among those present at yesterday's meeting being ex-Selectman William S. Beecher, L. Wheeler Beecher, William A. Harris, Frederick B. Farnsworth, Charles G. Kimberly, James D. Dewell and Simon J. Fox. Besides the counsel for the railroad company, the only person who appeared in favor of the petition was J. A. W. Dodge, the general manager of the railroad company. After the meeting had been formally opened Judge Hotchkiss stated that the remonstrance had been brought under a misapprehension, as it was not known at the time that the selectmen had three months ago voted to oppose all projects for new charters or amendments to charters of street railway companies unless the companies first obtained the approval of the town government, and he added, "We now rely upon that vote."

James D. Dewell strenuously opposed the granting of the petition on the ground that the tracking of Townsend avenue was not a public necessity, and that it was one of the few thoroughfares of the town now cut up by the tracks of electric street railroad companies. He was cross-examined at length by ex-Governor Waller, but could not be made to say that the tracking of the avenue was a public necessity. He did say, however, that if two-thirds of the residents of the avenue would favor the petition he would withdraw his opposition to it.

At this ex-Governor Waller remarked that the railroad company would be willing to incorporate in its petition that the charter should not be allowed unless two-thirds of the residents of the avenue signed a petition in favor of tracking the avenue. L. Wheeler Beecher, William S. Beecher and Colonel S. J. Fox all remonstrated against the tracking of the avenue on the ground that it was not a public necessity, and further that the railroad company had at the present time permission to double track Woodward avenue to Upson street, which would enable them to give perfect satisfaction to the public of that section.

After a general discussion of the subject the selectmen decided to hold another meeting to-morrow night, when arguments will be made. Town Counsel Goodhart stated that the petition of the New Haven Street Railroad company was listed for a hearing before the general assembly to-day, but owing to the fact that the town had not decided what action to take on the matter he thought that it would probably be postponed.

In view of the statement the members of the board decided to postpone further action on the matter until to-morrow evening.

SUICIDE OF J. W. CARTER.

Formerly Agent of New Haven Steamboat Line—Shoots Himself at Unionville—Was Mentally Unbalanced.

J. W. Carter of 283 Sherman avenue, this city, formerly the New Haven agent of the New Haven Steamboat company, committed suicide in the roadway between the public school and the town hall at Unionville sometime Sunday night, about 9 o'clock, it is believed. He went from Hartford to Meriden on Saturday, and then came to Unionville on the suburban train Sunday morning. He visited the office of the Suburban Railway company, and attended service at Christ church Sunday evening. At about 9 o'clock Henry Hart of the firm of A. S. Hart & Son, and Samuel Frisbie heard a single shot. This was undoubtedly the one fired by Carter, as a 32-calibre Hotchkiss & Allen revolver was found by his side. The body was discovered about 6 o'clock yesterday by P. M. Drigg, an undertaker and janitor of the public school. The body had a bullet wound in the side and lay near a fence, and the blood oozed from the ears and nose.

Drigg could not recognize the man and notified the authorities. The deputy coroner was summoned and notified Dr. Edgerton, the medical examiner. He made an investigation of the suicide's effects and found a pocketbook containing an old-fashioned 25-cent piece, three handkerchiefs, a bunch of keys and a commutation ticket on the Fair Haven and Westville Street Railway company. On the key was a commutation ticket was the name, John W. Carter. About 8 o'clock Thornton Brooks, an employee of the Upson Street company, viewed the remains and identified the body as that of ex-Agent Carter of New Haven. His three brothers, Edward Carter of New Hartford, Allen Carter of Plainville, and Frank Carter of Hartford, were notified. Edward Carter came here at once and identified the body as that of his brother John. Edward said his brother had been out of employment for some time, and his mind had become unbalanced by worry. He had acted strangely for a year, and in the opinion of his brother was insane when he fired the shot which ended his life.

Among the letters found in his pocket was one written by himself in which he stated that the report in a Hartford Sunday paper that he was intoxicated was correct. He explained, however, that he was not drunk, but had been out of employment for some time, and his mind had become unbalanced by worry. He had acted strangely for a year, and in the opinion of his brother was insane when he fired the shot which ended his life.

Mr. Carter was about fifty years of age. Mr. Carter's services with the steamboat company terminated a year ago last December, and as he did not find other employment he became very despondent. While on a visit to his brother in Plainville he tried to commit suicide by taking morphine. He was discovered in his room in a comatose state of stupor and a physician was summoned. Prompt work by the doctor saved his life. After this experience Carter expressed great sorrow for his rash act and when the summer excursion season opened he obtained employment as agent for Mr. Plant of Branford in running the steamer Margaret to Pico park and other places on the east shore. He seemed to have recovered his usual cheerfulness and health. But when the season closed Mr. Carter was again out of a position and he had had little to do this winter, which fact probably brought his mind back into the same state as when he first attempted to kill himself.

He was born in Pleasant Valley and came to this city about twenty-nine years ago as bill clerk for the Consolidated road. After working for the road for over a year he went over to the steamboat company and was for twenty-five years their cashier and for two years their agent. He married a daughter of George Lego, who was a government contractor in this city during war times. His wife and three daughters survive him. Their home is at 283 Sherman avenue.

His is not the first tragic death that has befallen an employee of the steamboat company. Mr. Brooks, who was agent of the company when Mr. Carter first went there as cashier, was killed by a runaway horse on Chapel street, corner of State street, while standing on the sidewalk talking with a friend, and Wallace B. Miller, who succeeded Mr. Carter as agent, died suddenly at his home in about twenty days after he assumed his position there.

Mr. Carter told a friend in town here a few days ago that he might accept the position of manager of the Pico park excursions again this summer, but had not fully decided in regard to it. The news of his death causes much regret among the very many friends of the deceased here.

IN TRINITY G. L. CHURCH

Luther League Convention to be Held To-day.

The Luther league of Central Connecticut will hold its third convention in this city to-day. The delegates will meet at the German Lutheran Trinity church on George street, where the business will be transacted. The president of each society will give a short sketch of the manner in which they carry on their meetings. Several songs will be sung and the meeting will adjourn to meet their friends at the Hermanns Sons' hall, 129 George street, where the Y. P. S. of New Haven will serve refreshments and a musical program.

BRIDGEPORT ALDERMAN MISSING.

William Flynn Believed to Have Drowned Himself.

Bridgeport, April 15.—A general alarm was sent out this morning in hopes of finding, dead or alive, Alderman William Flynn of this city, who wandered away from home Saturday afternoon in a demented condition. He was seen Saturday night by a farmer going in the direction of Swamp Morton road, a witness west of the city. Alderman Flynn attended a caucus of the democratic members of the new common council on Friday night, and was apparently in good health. The session was very exciting, and when he awoke Saturday morning he appeared very despondent, said his friends had all deserted him and talked of ending his life. He escaped from his home this afternoon. His family say he has acted rather quietly several times during the past year, but never before showed a disposition to do himself harm. Alderman Flynn is very popular in the Fourth ward, and was about to enter upon his fourth year in the common council.

FAIR HAVEN.

Mr. Norton's Funeral—Apollo Quintet—W. C. T. U.—Congratulations—General News.

The funeral of George W. Norton of Townsend Place, annex, was held from St. Andrews' M. E. church Sunday afternoon and the interment was in the Fair Haven cemetery. Mr. Norton had been for twenty-five years a well known oyster watchman down the harbor and employed by George H. Townsend. He died from the effects of erysipelas.

The Apollo Quintet will give a concert at Osborn hall to-morrow evening and the admission is twenty-five cents. The quintet consists of W. S. Moyle and G. C. Stock, tenors; Dr. D. A. Jones, baritone; P. S. Weld and L. R. Goodyear, basses. They will be assisted by Mrs. E. L. Nettleton, elocutionist, and Miss MacArthur, pianist.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will give an Easter entertainment at their hall on Grand avenue this evening. Supper will be served from 5 to 7 o'clock, to be followed by an interesting musical and literary program.

At the Easter entertainment for the Sunday school of Grace church Sunday afternoon, banners were presented to the classes of Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Ryan for proficiency in learning the collects.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rowe and daughter have returned from Florida, where they have spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester P. Mallory and daughter are expected home from Alabama this week.

Levis Brockstet has bought out the billiard room and fruit and tobacco store of H. S. Connell on East Grand avenue.

The friends of Rev. D. M. James are congratulating him upon the coming of a little daughter into his home.

Miss Lodema Marks, who died in North Haven last week, was the aunt of Judge C. A. Bray, James Bray and Mrs. L. P. Mallory. For several years she had lived in the home of her nephew, Wells Bray, who came on from Alabama to care for her several years ago. She was in the ninety-first year of her age and a most excellent woman.

Will Morgan, son of Alderman William E. Morgan, sang for the first time in public at the entertainment given by the Union Veterans' union last week. Mr. Morgan has an excellent baritone voice.

Rev. N. G. Cheney, the new pastor of the East Pearl street M. E. church, will remove from New Rochelle, N. Y., to the parsonage on East Pearl street this week.

The new paper shells made by Waters of Troy, N. Y., for the Yale crew, are in the boat house on East Chapel street. One of them will be kept until the crew go to New London; the others will be given a trial on the Quinnipiac river in a few days.

A FINE CONCERT.

The concert by the Apollo quintet, under the auspices of the B. A. T. Tennis club, Wednesday evening at Osborn hall, promises to be a very enjoyable affair. A number of interest will be a solo by Mr. Goodyear, who was formerly a Fair Haven resident. Following is the program:

Quintet. Part I. Piano solo—Recollections of Home—Miss MacArthur. Pirates' Serenade—Gould. How Ruby Played—Anon. Mrs. Nettleton. a. Hush—Neldinger. b. Murmuring Rill—Adams. The Old Gravelled—Henderson. Mr. Goodyear. Father Paul—Anon. Mrs. Nettleton. The Bridge—Shattuck. Quintet. Part II. Piano solo—Dreaming by the Brook—Miss MacArthur. The Red Scarf—Bonheur. Money Musk—B. F. Taylor. If Thou in Dreams—Beschnitt. Dr. Jones and Quintet. The Silent World is Sleeping—Buck. Mr. Moyle. Recitation—Selected. Mrs. Nettleton. The Long Day Closes—Sullivan. Quintet. Y. M. C. A.

A course of lectures are to be given by the Fair Haven Y. M. C. A., commencing this week Thursday. These lectures are free to members, with the privilege of inviting a friend. Admission will be by ticket. The course will be as follows: April 18, Judge L. P. Deming, "Our Country's Great Pleasure Grounds" (illustrated); April 24, Dr. W. L. Cross of Yale, "George Eliot"; May 1, Professor William H. Brewer of Yale, "A Trip to Greenland" (illustrated). Ladies will be admitted.

ANNUAL REUNION

Of the Lancasterian School Association.

The annual meeting and reunion of the association will be held at Warner hall on the one hundredth anniversary of the birthday of John E. Lovell, which occurs on Tuesday, April 23, 1895.

The members of the association and all others who have been pupils of Mr. Lovell have been invited to meet at Warner hall, No. 1040 Chapel street, on that day, at 5 o'clock p. m. promptly, and proceed in a body to his grave in the Grove street cemetery, where appropriate exercises will take place. The Rev. Dr. Edward O. Flagg of New York has accepted an invitation to be present and make an address.

A business meeting for the reading of the reports of the secretary and treasurer and the election of officers and executive committees for the ensuing year will be held at Warner hall immediately after the exercises at the grave, and at the close of which meeting a collation will be served.

As it is possible that this may be the last reunion of the association, a large attendance is expected. W. W. White, B. R. English, Henry W. Mansfield, C. G. Merriman and S. E. Barney are the committee of arrangements.

Still No Election.

Dover, Del., April 15.—The 111th ballot for United States senator taken to-day resulted: Higgins 9, Addicks 5, Massey 4, Pennell 1, Ridgely 9, Bayard 1.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Financial Notes—New Haven Clearing House—Many Dividends—The Swift Company Dividends—The Union Pacific Firsts.

The secretary of the New Haven clearing house reports the clearings and balances for the week ending April 13, of 1895 and 1894. The business of the five days of the past week has averaged $263,963 per day against $224,886 per day of the week of 1894. This is the second week in the year of 1895 in which the clearings have averaged more than for the corresponding week of 1894. By days the amounts were:

	1895.	Balances.	1894.
April 8 ..	$262,632.60	$43,235.23	$282,636.27
April 9 ..	239,139.77	56,237.94	237,739.59

$1,215,414.94 $298,317.37 $1,349,320.03

Decrease week of 1895, $33,905.69. Balances for week of 1894, $321,418.70. Decrease balances for week of 1895, $23,101.33.

Clearings week of 1895, $1,791,067.65. Dividends due yesterday are: Bell Telephone company, quar., 3 per cent.

Bridgeport Electric Light company, quar., 2 per cent. Boston Electric Light company, quar., 2 per cent.

Consolidated Electric of Portland, 1½ per cent. Equitable Gaslight company of New York, semi annual, 3 per cent.

Georgia Railroad and Bank company, 2½ per cent. H. B. Caffen & Co., common, quar., 1½ per cent.

Metropolitan Traction company, quar., 1½ per cent. New York Produce Exchange bank, N. Y., 3 per cent.

New England Street railway, quar., 1 per cent. New York and New Jersey Telephone, quar., 1½ per cent.

New York and Pennsylvania Telephone, quar., 1½ per cent. Proctor & Gamble Co., pref., quar., 2 per cent.

South New England Telephone, qu., 1½ per cent. Western Union Telegraph company, 1½ per cent.

Transfer books closing yesterday are: American Tobacco, com., 3 per cent, May 1.

American Tobacco, pref., 2 per cent, May 1. Boston and Maine railroad, com., 2 per cent, May 15.

Chicago Gas company, 1 per cent, April 15. Long Island Railroad company, 1 per cent, May 1.

To-day the Mexican Telegraph company will pay a quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent. The stock is largely held in Boston and vicinity.

On Saturday of this week the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad will pay the usual quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent.

The New York and Pennsylvania Telephone company paid yesterday its fortieth dividend of 1½ per cent. This is one of the companies in which the late H. P. Frost of this city was largely interested in promoting and in which some New Haven capital was placed. The Swift & Co. dividend of 1½ per cent. will be payable one week from to-day. Since the declaration of this dividend nearly all of the selling orders in the stock have been withdrawn. At the closing of the books on Friday last the nominal quotation was $9 to $10.

The second assessment of 1 per cent. on the Distilling and Cattle Feeding company was payable yesterday at the Manhattan Trust company in New York city. At a meeting of the Union Pacific railroad first mortgage bondholders held in New York last week about forty bondholders were present. Edward King, Donald Mackey and A. H. Boissevain of New York and Charles E. Cotting of Boston were appointed a committee to represent the bondholders. It was stated that there was a book credit for account of the bonds of $500,000. The actual amount of cash held by the trustees of the bondholders for the payment of the coupons due January 1, 1895, was small, and the indications are that the coupons will not be paid much before July 1. This will be rather unpleasant reading for quite a number of New Haven people who have held the bonds for many years, but as these bonds are an absolute first mortgage and the security takes precedence to the United States government lien, the full amount of principal and interest will eventually be paid.

Exhibition Drill.

The Bethel cadets of this city and the Taylor cadets of Bridgeport will give an exhibition drill in Banquet hall on Thursday evening of this week. Rev. Dr. Twitchell will deliver an address. Mrs. B. T. Davis will read, Miss Sadie Williams will render a solo and the cadets will give an exhibition drill. Music will be furnished by Arpin's orchestra. Rev. J. H. Morgan will preside.

At the Messiah Church.

To-morrow evening, April 17, the ladies of the Church of the Messiah will give an Easter supper and egg hunt at the church with their annual Easter sale. A very pleasant affair for all is assured.

COURT RECORD.

City Court—Criminal Side—Judge Cable. Frederick A. Harrington and William Cos, theft from person, nolle; Richard Sturges, theft, bound over to superior court; Frank Murray, reform school complaint, discharged; Thomas Grady, reform school complaint, discharged; Edward Curtin, reform school complaint, discharged; Henry H. Court Notes.

In the superior court, criminal side, this morning before Judge Ralph Wheeler and a jury will be begun the trial of Dr. J. Edward Lee, charged with murder in the second degree in causing the death by criminal malpractice of Maggie Schless of Ansonia. Dr. Whitten will be present and appear as a witness for the defense.

Judge F. B. Hall yesterday partially heard a motion to dissolve the injunction restraining the Consumers' Ice company from taking out an execution against the Consolidated road. The Consumers' Ice company was awarded $12,000 damages for the land taken by the road when it changed the Shore Line tracks through Fair Haven. The road thereupon prayed out an injunction to prevent the victors from taking out an execution, as they wished to raise some question of law about the case. After a lengthy hearing the case was continued until Monday next, when it will be resumed before Judge Hall in Bridgeport.

Taylor Again Captured.

London, April 15.—Frank Taylor, alias Tarbo, the American swindler who was arrested in Cape Colony in January, subsequently escaped and was again arrested in Johannesburg, was arraigned in the Bow street police court to-day and remanded for further examination. His partner in crime, William Carroll Woodward, is still at large.

A Chat About Clothing.

The weather Saturday, especially Saturday night, was unfavorable for shopping—extremely so. We did not expect much trade, and would not have been disappointed if we had had a falling off from last year's sales; but we were tremendously surprised, jammedly surprised,—our store was packed from morning until we closed.

If the day was a sunshiny one, with a balmy May atmosphere, we might have sold a few more light colored suits, but we could not have waited on more customers. The above picture represents two gentlemen discussing our Spring Suits while they were patiently waiting to be waited upon.

To those who left without receiving attention, we offer our sincere regrets and trust that the next time they call they will have better luck.

In the Children's department, those Combination Suits with extra pants and cap to match for $3.50 and $5.00 are big sellers.

Beautiful assortment of Faunetery, Russian, Sailor and Browne Suits, $2.50 to $7.00.

DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR.

There is not one cent's difference between a gold dollar and a dollar's worth of our Clothing. Our fine $9.00 Clay Diagonal and Men's Black Cheviot Suits will stand comparison with any sold at $12.00. They are as well made and good fitting as any Suit sold for $15.00. The

QUALITY

Of our Spring Overcoats at $10.00 makes one wonder why he paid $15.00 for that one which he bought last season. Perfect fitting and made up of Covert Cloth, Worsted, Cheviots, Flannels and Venetians, they are fit for the noblest dressers. Our All Wool $5.00 Overcoat is almost all gone. Only about 20 left and those few are in sizes 34, 35, 36, 37 and 38. Big Bargains if you happen to wear that size. The

QUANTITY

Of our Pant Stock is amazing. Beyond a doubt we carry more Men's Pants in our stock than any two stores in town. Our working Pants never yet was sold less than $1.25. More than fifty styles of working Pants, ranging in prices from $1.00 up to $2.25. When it comes to Dress Pants it must be a very peculiar man whom we cannot fit to a pair at prices from $2.00 to $6.00. Your money back upon demand for any purchase made at
